SCHOOL BOARD DENIES ACCUSATION

Intimations That Activities Of Board Should Be Investigated Are Refuted In Statement To Press

Denying allegations made recently against their integrity, the board of trustees of the Jefferson elementary schools, answered the charges in a recent statement to the press.

The charges, made by Hugh H. Smith Jr. in a recent letter to the San Mateo county grand jury, intimated that certain activities of the board should be investigated. Incidents cited included the sale by the board in 1947 of a car which had been used by a school nurse, the sale of the Vista Grande school site, and a "real estate deal" in which property designated for a future civic auditorium and war memorial building was allegedly purchased and then resold at 100 per cent profit.

The statement is as follows:

"That the board of trustees categorically denies as false, allegations recently made against them impugning the integrity of the board and published in newspapers of general circulation and therefore feels that in the interest of truth and justice th public be informed:

1. That on June 2, 1947, the board of trustees met to sell the old Vista Grande school site. That the property had been previously advertised for sale as required by law and that two bids accompanied by 10 per cent of the bid price were submitted. These bids were:

Sterling Building Co. .. $15,100
Edward Goldkuhl 17,500

The property was then legally sold to Mr. Goldkuhl as the highest bidder as required by law, the board acting as a unit and in a legal and proper manner in the entire transaction.

2. That bids on an automobile sold by the district were presented to the board; that no bid exceeded the sum of $450 and that the high bid for that amount was accepted by the board and the money deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the district all allegations and insinuations to the contrary, notwithstanding.

3. That the Market street school site property as approved by the State is not owned by, nor is any board member financially interested in property which it is proposed that the district purchase in the area.

The board of trustees therefore appeals to the public not to be taken in by malicious and false statements fostered by disgruntled persons seeking to discredit the board for purely personal motives."

FIREMEN'S BALL THIS SATURDAY NIGHT AT JEFF HIGH AUDITORIUM

Crowds always gather around firemen when they're putting out a fire—but the size of them will not compare with the crowds which will attend the annual Widow's and Orphans' Association ball, sponsored by the Daly City Fire Department this week. The semi-formal affair will be held Saturday, May 7, at the Jefferson Union High School auditorium.

A grand march will be the highlight of the dancing which will take place between 9 p. m. and 1 a.m. Four acts will be presented during the intermission.

Music will be furnished by Marty Leever and his orchestra. Prizes will be awarded.

Children Like New Pet Shop On Mission Street

Mothers walking along with their youngsters on the east side of Mission street, sometimes have a difficult time getting their offspring past the window at 6277 Mission street. That's the location of the new Daly City Pet Shop, and the display of puppies in the window often fascinates both young and old alike.

In addition to the dogs, the shop carries birds, fish and supplies including horse meat for your pet. Drop in and look around sometime to see the shop.

Tom Tromborg Going Into The "Bean Business"

Once upon a time there was a boy named Jack who traded a cow for some beans. When he told his mother what he had done, she threw the beans out of the window in anger.

During the night, however, the beans took root and grew into a giant bean stalk with many other beans growing on it. In the morning Tom Tromborg of Tromborg and Sons picked all the beans off the stalk and put them in a jar in his window at 26 Hillcrest drive and he's offering three prizes to the boys in Daly City who can come closest to guessing the number of beans in the jar.

First prize is a model race car with an engine. Second and third is a model race car without the engine. They are on display at Tromborg's.

The contest is open to all the boys in Daly City between one and 16 years of age. And mom and pop can get in the contest too, for they can guess for their son.

The contest closes June 15. Come on, all you Jacks of Daly City. Start guessing now. Entry blanks can be secured at Tromborg and Sons, 26 Hillcrest drive.

$1529 Is Collected In Red Cross Drive

Donations amounting to $1529.99 were taken in by Red Cross workers in the Daly City area during the recent drive, according to Mrs. Ann Ingersoll, chairman of this district. This amount, however, fell short of the $2,000 goal set for the community.

Mrs. Ingersoll expressed thanks to all those who participated in the drive and particularly to the City of Daly City, the Daly City Theatre, King's Market, and the Mission Auto Court.

Mrs. Ingersoll also stressed that anyone in this area needing the aid of the Red Cross should contact her at JUniper 7-5350.

SCENES FROM DALY CITY'S MAY DAY PARADE

Queen Lois-Ann Lagomarsino is pictured with her court riding on the Queen's float which was sponsored by the City of Daly City. The float was decorated in green and gold imprinted with the slogan, "Daly City, Gateway to the Peninsula."

Queen Lois-Ann reigned over the annual May Day Festival held at the football field of the Jefferson Union High school Sunday.

Lois is a first grader at Our Lady of Perpetual Help school. Her attendants were: Geraldine Franzoia, Jefferson Elementary school; Sandra Paoli, Thornton school; Mary Alice Olson, Woodrow Wilson; Marilyn Firpo, General Pershing. The crown bearer was Gene Tabor.

The girls wore pastel gowns with two in yellow and two in lavendar.

Riding atop the Daly City Merchants Association float were Dorothy Tieldi and Jeanette Garibaldi. The float was judged the most outstanding one in Sunday's parade. Second prize was awarded to Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, and third to the Daly City Fire Department. For the outstanding float the merchants received a trophy and blue ribbon.

MAY DAY FIRE PREVENTION FLOAT BURNS DOWN

Attention short story writers:

Here's one you might call "What Price Publicity" or "Don't Let This Happen to Your Float."

Daly City's volunteer fire department had just finished building its fire prevention float for the May Day parade Saturday. Everyone agreed it would make an impression, but no one dreamed that people would be reading about it in New York.

In fact, the story got on the nation's press wires to places all over the country.

After many hours of labor, Chief J. E. Kennedy and his men had worked up a very realistic float, consisting of a 22-foot wood and cardboard house mounted on a big trailer. Inside the house a fireman pumped a forge and bellows. Smoke poured out from under the eaves, curdling round a sign on the roof which warned:

"Don't let this happen to your house."

Fire Commissioners Dave Caffaretta, Dick Ennis, and George Augustine came out to admire it.

Then everyone took time out for a beer.

Some minutes later, a passerby noticed that the smoke kept coming out even after the man with the bellows had left. Flames added to the realism of the display.

The firemen couldn't keep the house from burning down, but they did save the trailer. They stayed up most of the night building a duplicate house and the float entered the parade on schedule.

FOLK DANCING

Folk dancers are invited to attend the Daly City Folk Dancers May Party which will be given May 7 at 337 Bellevue Avenue, Recreation Center. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Ingersoll will be the host and hostess.

NEW ATTRACTIONS ARE SCHEDULED FOR NEXT TUESDAY'S BIG EVENT

STREET LIGHTING, SWEEPING, SIGNS ORDERED BY CITY

A better street situation throughout Daly City was in the offing this week, as city council members instructed A. J. Bodien, superintendent of public works, to give regular street sweeping top priority in his street maintenance program.

In addition, the council announced that it has obtained street sign poles which will shortly be installed at all intersections throughout the city. The galvanized steel poles will be installed between now and September, and steel enameled signs have been ordered for delivery in September.

It was expected that final arrangements for installation of new, high-lumen mercury street lamps on Mission street would be completed within two weeks. Plans call for the new lights at all main pedestrian crossings and in commercial areas.

Druids Celebrate 20th Anniversary

Forty-two members and friends of Hillcrest Circle No. 143, United Ancient Order of Druids, celebrated the group's 20th anniversary at a banquet held April 28 in the Club Casino.

The world-renowned Duncan Sisters will present their famous "Topsy and Eva" routine. They will be supplemented by many other acts, including the dance team of Bettie Duffie and Lorraine Remmer, Bill Cerrini in impersonations of stage and screen personalities, and the Eagles' Hill Billy Band. They will share the spotlight with other local and imported talent.

A full-length movie, "Crazy House," featuring Olson and Johnson, will complete the program. Proceeds of the benefit show will go to Youth Welfare activities in the Daly City - Colma area.

Final plans for the show were completed last Monday night by the show committee under the chairmanship of Gil O'Shaughnessy. Reports showed a good advance sale of tickets.

Remember the date — May 10 — at 8 p.m. in the Daly City Theatre.

Contract Let For Junipero Serra Signals As Council Meets With Highway Heads

A meeting with officials of Joint Highway District No. 10, responsible for the administration of Junipero Serra boulevard, was the main item of business at Monday's city council caucus at the city hall.

Engineer "Doc" Johnston and Eugene Riordan, of the highway district, announced that the contract for installation of traffic signals at Junipero Serra and School street had been granted and that the contract price was ten per cent lower than estimates. Daly City had previously deposited $10,500 for its share of the project.

Access roads, speed limits and highway maintenance were other aspects of the Junipero Serra highway which were discussed. The city was represented by City Attorney Frank B. Blum, City Engineer R. A. Klassen, Mayor Paul Green and Councilmen Fred Bertetta and A. J. Gaggero.

Four North County City Heads Meet In Daly City To Hear Dr. Chope Talk

Daly City will be the host city tonight (Thursday) at the regular bi-monthly dinner meeting of the Northern San Mateo Council, at the Club Casino restaurant.

Dr. H. D. Chope, county health director, will be the principal speaker at the meeting, which consists of the city councils of the four northerly San Mateo county cities, Millbrae, San Bruno, South San Francisco and Daly City.

The group was organized several months ago in an attempt to obtain better county facilities in the northern end of the county, and to work out solutions to problems commonly facing the four cities.

Mayor Paul Green will lead a short business discussion, after which Dr. Chope will outline the county's health program. Mayor Elmer Robinson, of San Francisco, who had been sought as a guest, was unable to be present.

MAY DAY PARADE WAS FINEST EVER HELD IN THIS VICINITY

Daly City did it again! For the second successive year Daly City presented a bigger and better May Day parade and festival last Sunday. Participants from all over the state came to help Daly City celebrate in the gala affair.

The parade, as Mel Battye, chairman, so proudly stated, started "ten minutes ahead of schedule," 12:20 to be exact. For an hour and a half people gathered along Mission street watched the parade of floats, drum corps, drill teams, silver mounted horses, and marching units.

Major attraction, of course, was little Lois-Ann Lagomarsino, Queen of the May, surrounded by her court. Her attendants were Geraldine Franzoia, Sandra Paoli, Mary Alice Olson, Marilyn Firpo and the crown bearer, Gene Tabor. The group rode atop a beautifully decorated float inscribed with "Daly City, Gateway to the Peninsula." The girls wore pastel gowns and crowns of carnations in their hair.

Recreation Chairman Elman Rose, Parade Chairman Melford D. Battye, and Grand Marshal Eddie Allen were responsible for the smooth run-off of the whole day. They were ably assisted by Ed Cavagnaro, James Hinds, Neil Nel-

THE BUDGET — TOO HIGH

"We don't have to have a $1 billion State government in California this year."

That statement came from no less an authority on the subject than Rolland A. Vandegrift, auditor of the joint legislative committee. In backing up his claim, Mr. Vandegrift had this to say in a speech before the San Francisco Commonwealth Club: "Is it necessary for each State department to have a publicity man? Are 5,000 autos necessary for State employees? Do we have to build $72,000 homes for hospital superintendents?"

He contends that the budget is actually nearer $1,144,000,000 instead of the proposed $1,060,000,000, pointing out that $84,000,000 of the appropriation for the postwar building program was not included in the budget.

With the California budget running well ahead of even the much more populous state of New York, and in view of the proposed hike in State taxes, it is high time that every expense be cut as low as possible, consistent with the essential needs of the people.

Unless this is done excessive taxes may kill the taxpaying goose which lays the golden egg.

U.N. ANNIVERSARY

It cannot be said that the observance of the fourth anniversary of the United Nations' founding will be hailed with great joy. Certainly it will not evoke a modicum of the public enthusiasm which marked the gathering of world diplomats in San Francisco on April 25, 1945.

At that time the war in Europe was nearing a successful close. We were on good terms with the Russians. People everywhere were talking about the better world for which the war was supposedly being fought. The United Nations was to be the great organization that would weld the world together in the common cause for peace.

We know now that our hopes were too high and somewhat unrealistic. But even in the face of events in the past four years we still have hope. And there will be reason to hope just as long as the representatives of the major powers continue to gather, even for no other reason than to argue with each other.

It would be much more desirable and much more conducive to lasting peace if the diplomats could meet in a spirit of friendship and cooperation. But under the circumstances the real danger would come if they stopped arguing without reaching some understanding.

PRISON TERMS

Nearly four years after the shooting stopped in Europe the last of the long series of trials to place the responsibility for aggression and war atrocities and to mete out punishment for them has come to a close. The sentences imposed on this last batch of defendants — German diplomats and ministerial officials — were anything but heavy considering the crimes on which they were convicted.

For instance, Gottlob Berger, SS (Elite Guard) lieutenant general, was found guilty on four counts including murder and ill treatment of prisoners of war and enslavement of conquered peoples. His sentence was 25 years in prison. That will be reduced by the time already spent in jail before and during the trial. With good behavior — or maybe without it — he will probably be out in 10 years or less.

Others received penalties as low as four years behind bars. All in all, such punishment will hardly serve as an object lesson to future would-be fuehrers and the men, such as these, whose help is indispensable to military conquest.

Risking Life and Limb

Beatrice Dante guides one of her trained chimpanzees along a ropewalk in a breath-taking, hair-raising, death-defying act at the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Circus in New York's Madison Square Garden. The steel-nerved chimp thrills thousands with this perilous performance.

Buddy Maleville (left) and former Millbrae mayor, Harold Taylor (second from right) have the assistance of a trio of lovely ranch hands as they extend a whooping invitation to peninsula residents to attend the 3-day Millbrae 49-er Cavalcade which opens next Thursday evening with a colorful two and a half hour "Early California" pageant. The pretty gals are; left to right: Pamela Moon, Mary Jones and Edythe Wright Gamboni.

RENT "DOPE"

"The cost of doing business as a rent violator is going sharply up," said Henry A. Cross, Area rent director of the San Francisco Bay Defense-Rental Area, in explaining the "treble damage" provisions of the new 1949 rent law which went into effect April 1.

Cross said that under the new rent law, the Office of the Housing Expediter now had the right to sue for three times the amount of rent overcharged, instead of for the single amount of the overcharge as under the 1948 law.

He pointed out that the tenant still has the right to sue for treble damages himself within a month of the violation, and that the right of the government agency to sue for treble damages accrued if the tenant did himself sue. "However," he said, "if the Government brings the suit for treble damages, the tenant will receive at most not more than single damages, with the balance going to the U.S. Treasury."

Cross said the rent office was receiving many calls from tenants who appeared to be under the impression that the tenant would receive the entire amount awarded by the court if the Government brought the suit, and emphasized that from suits brought by the Government, the tenant would receive only what the court specifically awarded the tenant, in any case not more than the amount of the overcharge. The only way for a tenant to obtain treble damages is for him to bring suit himself, he concluded.

A survey being conducted by the Navy indicates that the average Navy man is 68½ inches tall. This figure was reached from a total of more than 6,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel surveyed.

The first naval college of which there is any record was established at Sagres, Portugal, in 1415. Here King Henry (known as Henry the Navigator) called together famous seaman from every nation to instruct his young countrymen.

A specially formed drum on the anchor windlass to hold and pull the links of an anchor chain is a "wildcat."

The nickname "leatherneck" was earned by marines in 1812 when stiff leather bands were sewn into their collars to ward off sword strokes.

The geographical belt located between the 40th and 50th parallels of latitude, in which are encountered the prevailing or stormy westerlies, is called the "roaring forties."

The old saying "It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good," had its origin in nautical expression, meaning that no matter which way the wind blew, some ship must surely benefit from its direction.

A new anti-submarine destroyer will be named in honor of Vice Admiral Willis Augusta Lee, World War II hero.

The first credited North Atlantic passage by a steamship was made by the Royal William of Canada. Although it took as long as many of the fast windjammers of the day, it proved the practicability of steam for deepwater work.

The first Naval Reserve air base at Squantum, Massachusetts, consisted of one officer, two seaplanes, one rigger, two machinist's mates and a carpenter.

Letter To The Editor

Editor:—

Letter to Editor in last week's paper, expressed the sentiment of many citizens and taxpayers of Daly City. A campaign or other means should be started to abate the nuisance of football, baseball, and rock throwing. Many of us take pride in our gardens and the appearance of our streets. It entails a great deal of effort, cost, etc. Children deliberately ruin flowers, shrubs, and lawns.

Seems to me the parents of these children would appreciate the well kept homes. The fact is our streets are used for playgrounds. Parents send the children outside to play while most of the homes in Daly City have ample backyards. They do not want the gardens in their yards destroyed, but how about the neighbors and the destruction to their gardens?

It is most discouraging to find things destroyed each day, after all one's efforts. I, too, ask what is wrong with the training of Daly City children today; also what is wrong with the parents? Can't our property rights be protected?

Electrical Living Is Vital Part Of Every Home

Electrical Living is a vital part of every home, adding to enjoyment, saving time and energy and providing endless comfort and convenience. These benefits of electrical living probably are realized more often in connection with the kitchen than any other room of the house.

The ideal kitchen, no matter what its shape and size, will be realized with an electric refrigerator, range, dish washer and garbage disposer, and good lighting, both overhead and at all work centers. Additional equipment should include a ventilating fan, electric clock and, of course, the usual portable table appliances that speed the preparation of meals with a minimum of effort.

For those who must budget these items, the first thing to consider is the ultimate degree of electrification wanted in the home, so that the wiring may be planned ahead for adequate service through the years. Then the most essential appliances, such as the electric range and refrigerator, may be purchased first, and the others added one by one.

Even though the budget is limited, you can shorten the hours you spend in the kitchen by adding an electric dishwasher. When distributed over the life of a house, the additional cost of a dishwasher or any electrical appliance is small, indeed.

PAST PRESIDENTS HOLD MEETING

Ten past presidents of Daly City Unit No. 410 met at the home of Mrs. Catherions Foreman last Thursday evening. After a short business meeting the evening was spent on fancy work. Prizes and cigarettes were sent to the Women's Ward at the Palo Alto hospital.

Those attending were Mesdames Mary Crane, Marcie Trier, Rose Giorni, Lillian Felch, Julia Jordan, Margaret Kenney, Naomi Murphy, Leslie Hansen, and Vivian Pahlka.

KEEP SPEED LOW

Don't race for the gasoline filling station when the fuel gauge registers empty, warns the National Automobile Club. Speeding up is the quickest way to get the least out of the fuel remaining in the tank. The engine travels farthest on the least gasoline at a speed of around 25 miles per hour.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

CROCKER

The honor which Crocker is proud to announce is the result of the American Legion Auxiliary Americanism Essay Contest. In the 7th, 8th, and 9th grade division "Our Privileges and Responsibilities as Future Citizens" three members of the student body won prizes. First prize went to Astrid Chun Fat, whose essay has been sent to the district; second prize, Harold Dimond, and honorable mention, Harry Miller. All three of these students are prospective graduates.

In the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade division, "Our American Way of Life," Michael Rogerson, H5, won first prize. Congratulations, contestants! Your classmates, school, and teachers are very proud of you.

In the recently conducted American Legion Auxiliary Poppy Poster contest, Tony Delfino, of the H7, won second place in the district for his poster. The first prize went to a former Crocker graduate, now attending Jefferson high school, Leonard Mullen. At an assembly Tony was honored by being presented his award by Mrs. Kenny, Poppy Poster chairman of the Daly City unit. Mrs. Hansen, district chairman, as well as Mrs. Pahlka were present. Supt. Snell led the pledge to the flag, at the request of President Filippo, and also honored the student assembly with a short talk.

The L6 and H5 classes viewed a most constructive film on the fishing industry in California, which was shown in connection with their social science work.

The War of 1812 has been the center of the social science interest for the L8-H7 grade group. The students learned that the important Battle of New Orleans was fought after the Treaty of Ghent was signed. This battle was the only one in which the Americans were victorious on land. On the sea, the Americans won many brilliant victories.

An arithmetic area of experience, recently completed by the H7-L7 has been the specifics of finding areas of rectangles, squares, parallelograms, and triangles, in addition to determining the perimeter of rectangles. The health period proved most functional when the lesson centered around the care of the hair and nails.

WOODROW WILSON

On Monday evening, April 25, the Woodrow Wilson school observed California's thirtieth annual Public Schools Week by an impressive program and an excellent exhibition of the students' work. The faculty thanks the many friends who showed their interest in our school by their attendance on that evening.

The students of the low and high sixth are drawing physical and political maps of the East Indies. The East Indies may be called the "Green Archipelago" because nearly everywhere there is enough rain to make a forest. The students particularly enjoyed the study of the lives of the Negritos, the hill people of Sumatra. The Negritos have no fixed homes but move about in groups, living under the shelters of leaves, bark, or skins. They are very expert with a bow and arrow and can throw stones almost as accurately as a man can shoot with a rifle.

Various groups of boys and girls in the seventh grade have been assigned to draw large maps of the European countries they have studied. Some are making charts of the products of these countries.

The pupils of the high eighth grade welcomed Robert Martin, a new pupil, to their class. Robert is a transfer from San Francisco. Arlene Wilder has returned to Woodrow Wilson after spending a few months in Texas.

Mother's Hour At Broadmoor Church

Canaries will add their joyous notes to those of two choirs in the happy Mother's Day service at 11:15 this Sunday in the Community Presbyterian church, 87th street, west of Junipero Serra, in Broadmoor Village. Bouquets will be given the oldest and youngest mother, and a floral token presented to every woman. The sacrament of baptism will be administered, and the sermon subject will be "Mother's Daily Service."

There will be appropriate music and, according to the minister, the Rev. John A. Glasse, "this will not be a sob service, but rather a happy hour in which we will honor Mother and worship God."

Mustangs' Dance Was "Fairly Successful"

The dance held April 30 at Lovchen Gardens by the Mustangs, local athletic club, was "fairly successful," Gus Sola, business manager of the club said today.

Purpose of the dance was to raise money to finish paying for the club's athletic uniforms and equipment.

The Mustangs may sponsor a picnic this summer, Sola said.

Lewkowitz Asks Big Turnout For Trustee Election

"Don't forget the school election Friday, May 20," Joe Lewkowitz, candidate for the board of trustees, Jefferson Elementary school district, reminded residents here.

"Everyone should show an interest in the school district and whether you are casting a vote for Mr. Baher, Mrs. Cheatham or myself, please turn out and vote for your choice. This is the only way the person elected will know the people are interested in the school system."

Owner of a business in Daly City, Lewkowitz has lived here since 1939. He has six children of his own, five of whom are attending schools in the Jefferson Elementary school district. He is active in civic affairs here.

Putting the Pieces Together

The world's largest jigsaw puzzle—the vast, ruined temple of Karnak on the Nile River at Luxor, Egypt—is slowly being put back together again. Archaeologists who are reconstructing the historic building estimate that the job will take 50 years. HI-LITES AT C.C.S.F.

By Roy Hurlbert

It's amazing sometimes to realize just how fast tempus fugits. Pardon the lingo borrowed from the Roman, but the writer along with some 5,000 other partakers of wisdom at the Balboa Park plant are wondering where the time has been disappearing. Here it is another midterm period all shot to pieces and before long the books'll be shelved for the summer. Yup, just six weeks more plus an aftermath of final exams up till the 17th of June and it'll be all quiet on the learning front for a spell. Already the mode of chatter throughout Archie Cloud's dominion has shown a decided turn from scholarly levels to gabfests about plans for the summer months. Sun tanned and bronzed figures are mounting in number in Ramland and the back to nature complex is in full force what with everybody taking to the surrounding campus lawns on these sunny warm days. Instructors aren't excluded from their students in the aspect of being conscious of the let's - get - it - over - with attitude. We're sure the remaining time will seem long enough to all concerned despite the illusion that the days are fleeting by.

ATHLETIC DOINGS

Not even the big leagues can rival for tenseness and anxiety the situation of Bill Fischer and his City College horsehiders this week. Tuesday they started do-or-don't series with league leading San Mateo and tomorrow they tackle the unbeaten Bulldogs down the peninsula. The southern club thumped Modesto twice last week for its tenth straight win, while the Rams kept in taking a pair from Hartnell, 2-1, 12-5. Shortstop Jack Buckowatz gifted Ron Kiefer with his fourth NCJCC mound victory by slicing a two-bagger in the ninth inning, driving in the deciding tally. Bob McGovern got 13 hit support in fashioning his hill record at 2-0, as he helped himself to two bingles and was master in the second game.

Roy Diederichsen's ring warriors limped home from Pasadena last Saturday shorn a bit of their pride. Four of the five battlers sent to the national junior college championships dropped matches in the final night's sessions. Recovered from a recent knee injury, long stemmed Jerry Stern was the lone Ram titlist as he slugged his way to the 135-pound crown. Len Garcia, 125, and heavyweight Frank Sueuga were KO victims in a reversal of form. Welter Roy Damas dropped a thriller to Muir's Joe Rodriguez, and Dean Bender was edged by Bob Blanton of Pasadena. As a team the locals piled up 17 points, not enough to overtake the host city contingent, with a total of 20 markers.

Yet to finish ahead of any of their dual opponents, Grover Klemmer's spikemen hurry off to Modesto Saturday for the annual NCJCC conference meet. Maybe they're lacking in depth that makes for success, but individually things won't go too bad. Irv Beltrame can hold his own with the best in the century, Owen Moore has clipped his time for the better in the quarter-mile, and Jack Hurst is seadily improving in 110 and furling hurdles.

Boosted by the return of Stan Smith, Coach Harry Buttimer's courtsters are set for double trouble this week end, beginning with a conference clash with talented Stockton there tomorrow afternoon. Saturday, Menlo will engage their presence at the southern community.

San Mateo J.C.'s Iron and pellet squad threw a wrench in the well functioning Ralph Hillsman golf machine by holding the locals to a 13½-13½ last Friday. Modesto and Menlo oppose our gang in succession tomorrow and Saturday in away from home contests.

Four Charity Cans Have Been Stolen In Daly City

A letter was received this week by the Record in reply to a recent editorial which appeared on the front page. It was as follows:

"Editor Daly City Record
People in the Dark

Enclosed is a clipping from the San Francisco Chronicale published April 20 does not seem to coincide with the recent editorial in your paper on same subject. Fail to see any honor in such reports. Why all the mystery and cover up.

A Reader."

To quote the article as it appeared in the Chronicle: "There is little honor among thieves. Recently it was announced the "bedspread" burglars who went into McGraw Brothers' pharmacy on Mission street stole a bottle in which funds were contributed for the summer camperships. Of all thefts, that seemed the worst. The men, or some of them, were apprehended and Elton McGraw reported the bottle was recovered. All moneys save cent pieces had been taken, but, even so that, that amounted to $24. In addition, officers of the law recovered something like $1,000.

McGraw estimates camp donations amounted to close to $100."

Now, we have to explain our recent "outburst" which appeared on the front page of the April 21 issue. We feel that five reasons will leave us in the clear. Reason number one: According to Elton McGraw there was no positive identification that the jar found was the one taken from McGraw Brothers pharmacy. Two: other cans stolen from the Daly City Theatre, Mitchell's Club Casino, and Sprouse-Reitz have NOT been recovered. Three: regardless of whether the cans were recovered or not there still is no "honor" in stealing. Four: the article appeared in the Chronicle on the 20th and our editorial being written on the 21st did not give us much time to catch up on the latest. Five: the point of the editorial was not the fact that the cans were recovered but the fact that they were STOLEN!

Well, at least we know one of our readers is alert. Let's hope we have made ourselves clear.

STOP FOR SIREN

When you hear the siren of an emergency vehicle, pull to the right side of the road away from an intersection, come to a full stop and wait until the vehicle has passed, as required by the Vehicle Code.

ODDS AND ENDS

Bob Emmerson's music makers will supply the waltz time for the Gamma Phi Ypsilon's Spring Fever Dance in the one and only auditorium tomorrow night.

The deluge of people for the fall semester is expected to be enormous, so a new system has been adopted to meet the rush. Students who expect to return for another term must secure a number for registration before this session expires. They'll be out in the cold if they dont.

A German construction crew works on the new Russian Embassy building in Berlin, located on the famed Unter Den Linden, where the destroyed embassy building stood before a U. S. bombing raid in 1943. Graduation Day at Dog School

MISS THOMPSON'S THIRD GRADE
PEOPLE GO TO SCHOOL TO LEARN AND DOGS DO, TOO — THERE'S A SCHOOL NEAR PHILADELPHIA WHERE CANINES, WHO REQUIRE FORMAL LEARNING, CAN GO TO GET EDUCATION
I'VE ABSORBED ALL THE DOGMA AND LEARNING A HOUND NEEDS-
AFTER THE DOGS HAVE FINISHED THEIR SCHOOLING THEY ARE GRADUATED - WELL PREPARED TO CARRY THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF A DOG'S LIFE
FADER

GRADUATION DAY in a dog-school is something new in education.

"Sit!" Miss Christine Thompson, the teacher, calls the "class" to order. Thirty dogs arrange themselves in a circle.

Nearby stand the owners. They've sent their pets to the Waynewood Montgomery Dog School, near Philadelphia, to get a good dog-education. Today, Miss Thompson puts her "graduates" through their paces. First she makes a little speech.

"You get much more fun from owning a well-trained dog than from owning one that's poorly trained, or not trained at all. Here at our Dog School, we have three main requirements: obedience, companionship, and usefulness. And now—our demonstration!"

MISS THOMPSON begins with elementary commands. "Jump! Heel! Turn! Sit! Guard! Fetch!"

Every dog obeys, quickly and correctly. The audience applauds, and everyone has a grand time, especially the dogs.

Now Miss Thompson gives the more advanced tests. She takes a lively little terrier off by himself, and says, "Lie down!"

"I'm going to leave Terry here for three minutes," she explains. "He isn't supposed to move till I tell him to."

Terry doesn't move a muscle, not even his tail. But his eyes follow Miss Thompson as she plays and romps with the other dogs. It must be hard for him to stay there, but Terry's a good pupil and passes the test. Not until Miss Thompson turns and snaps her fingers does Terry bound toward her.

Now comes a still harder test. It's Docky this time, the dachshund with the flappy ears.

Docky sits, tongue hanging out, head turned a little, clever eyes fixed on Miss Thompson. An assistant comes over, and deliberately tries to make Docky move! He tells him to get up, to lie down. He offers Docky some food, prods him with a stick, threatens to kick him. No use! Docky's been told to sit, and sit he will, no matter what! Docky's owner nods proudly to his friends in the audience.

MISS THOMPSON calls for jumping. Up and away go the dogs, responding to her least word and gesture. They clear hurdles and crawl under them. They do broad jumps. More applause from the watching owners.

"Scent test," announces Miss Thompson.

The assistant brings over a large basket full of little blocks. He signals every owner to come and take one, to handle it, put it in his pocket, get his scent all over it.

Each owner calls his dog to heel beside him, then tosses his block toward a single spot. The assistant pours out a lot of other blocks on top of the pile, then he thoroughly mixes them all.

The owners untangle themselves and their dogs, and the demonstration is over. Every dog shakes hands with Miss Thompson, and the owners say goodby. The "graduates" trot home behind their masters, both dogs and humans proud as peacocks!

Born in Wrong Land

A friend was giving Roger a ride home from church.

"How's your baby sister?" the man asked.

"Just fine," said Roger.

"Does she talk yet?"

"Oh yes," Roger replied. "But not in English."

Faster Than Rockets

WHEW—800 miles an hour! That's more than 13 miles a minute, which is really fast. But every day you go faster than that, and you don't even get dizzy. It is all a matter of what you use to judge your speed.

Right this minute you are hurtling through space at a rate that makes the time of the fastest rocket plane look like a snail's pace.

The earth spins on its axis like a top making a complete revolution every 24 hours. A person standing on the equator, therefore, is getting a free daily ride at the rate of about 1000 miles an hour. Your own rate will be considerably less than this, around 500 miles per hour.

Besides this daily ride, you are making a goose-egg trail around the sun at a speed of better than 60,000 miles an hour.

Getting dizzy? Well, hold on. On the top of this fantastic whirl around the sun, the whole solar system composed of earth, sun, moon, and stars, is rushing through space (and you along with it) at a rate of 45,000 miles an hour.

Add up your three speeds (you may neglect your daily exercise on earth) and you will see you are actually traveling something over 105,000 miles an hour or more than 1750 miles a minute compared with a rocket speed of 13 miles a minute.

Sometimes these astronomical speeds cancel each other so that we're going slower, but scientists have long suspected that the universe of which the solar system is a part is going places at a tremendous speed too, so our top limit may be considerably more than 105,000 miles an hour.

Mrs. W. Cheatham States Platform For Coming Election

Mrs. W. M. Cheatham, resident of the Jefferson district and mother of two public school students, has filed for candidacy on the forthcoming school trustee election.

Educational improvement is the basis of Mrs. Cheatham's candidacy, and she has stated that she is proud to be independent of any political ties, and free of any obligation to protect the interests of any political situation in the district.

Over three years of close observation of the general school picture here, has revealed to her the need of a little "housekeeping" in the district. Last year Mrs. Cheatham was an active backer of district-wide distribution of future school facilities, and renovation and logical expansion of present facilities. She was interested in bringing the local board and State Planning Commission into accord, thus expediting the building program.

Helen Cheatham is a graduate of Phoenix Junior College, attended the Arizona State College at Temp, the University of California, and devoted her study time to education, art and Psychology. Recently Mrs. Cheatham was elected president of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A.

This statement is made by Mrs. Cheatham. "My only interest is the children, and I want them to benefit in every way from the tax money that has been provided locally, and to sare rightfully in the State funds expected to be forthcoming soon. I would like to see our children live and learn in adequate school housing among conscientious and qualified instructors."

Speed Major Factor In Traffic Smashes

Almost one-third of the automobile drivers involved in fatal accidents last year were guilty of driving too fast for existing conditions, according to the California State Automobile Association.

Although there may have been other contributing factors, the Automobile Association said, it remains true that many tragedies might have been averted had those involved exercised proper judgment on speed with regard to weather, road and other traffic conditions.

The CSAA pointed out that violations of the laws of common sense can be as catastrophic as negligence of a posted regulation.

Rain or fog, for instance, make it hazardous to travel 55 miles per hour on a road where that speed is otherwise legal. Poor judgment in this respect—known as driving too fast for existing conditions — is almost as bad as going 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile-an-hour zone.

Drivers will do well to be conscientious always about posted limits and not to take chances where a question of judgement is involved. In short, take it easy and live — and let live.

OBEY THE RULES

Careful observance of safe driving rules is the best safeguard against a traffic accident, points out the California State Automobile Association, which urges motorists to obey traffic laws and to consider the rights of other highway users.

We have the word "crew" from the old Norse "acrue," meaning to gather; and from the same source comes "recruit."

ANNUAL PROMOTIONS IN JEFF SCHOOL DIST. START NEXT FALL

A system of annual promotions will be inaugurated in the Jefferson school district starting next fall. The new system was adopted when a survey taken by the superintendent with the help of the P.T.A.s revealed that the majority of the parents and teachers are in favor of such a system.

Next year, in order to enact the change, all pupils in the low sections of second semester classes will be advanced to the next highest grade except the low eighth, which will be graduated at their regular time in the mid term, making the class of 1950 the last to graduate mid-term.

No kindergarten or first grade pupils will be accepted in the mid-term. All present pupils will be given every opportunity to make the advance to the next grade and only in exceptional cases will it later be necessary to retard a pupil.

Factors which instigated the movement to eliminate the double promotions system included the following: since Jefferson is the only district in the county with the semi - annual promotions, pupils transferring from one district to the other may be penalized; pupils are required to adjust to twice as many teachers and teachers are required to do twice as much clerical work under the present system; graduation to the high school level involved problems to mid-termers as no other school district in the high school district has semi-annual promotions. It was also pointed out that mid-term classes don't have the class spirit of regular classes.

Three groups most concerned with the problem were given a chance to express their opinions before the new system was adopted. However, the majority of them were in favor of the new system. Statistics from the poll taken are as follows:

For annual graduation — 719 parents of children in school, 259 parents of pre-school children, 52 teachers.

For semi-annual graduation — 385 parents of children in school, 109 parents of pre-school children, 2 teachers.

Markovich, Eason Running Mates As J.U.H.S. Trustees

A resident of the Jefferson School District for practically all his life, and the first graduate of Jefferson Union High School to be installed by the public as a member of the high school board of trustees, Peter J. Markovich and his running mate, Mrs. Ann Eason, were receiving the active backing of hundreds of local residents for re-election to the high school board of trustees at the school elections on May 20.

One of the pioneer students at Jefferson, Markovich won block "J's" in football, baseball and soccer, before going on to St. Mary's College to complete his education. An active leader in student activities, only last week he proved his unfailing interest in athletics by winning the club golf championship at Lake Merced Golf Club.

Mrs. Eason, pioneer member of the city's Recreation commission, has been an active club and civic leader in the school district for many years.

Both the incumbents have won the respect of fellow trustees, school administrators, students and parents during their just-completed term of office.

Mr. Markovich and Mrs. Eason have pledged themselves to a continuing program of common-sense education at Jefferson Union High School, based on an efficient administration of school affairs.

News Notes From San Mateo Jaysee

San Mateo Junior College was a popular place the evening of its open house in connection with Public Schools Week. Visitors saw the beautiful Coyote Point campus, ate supper at the cafeteria, and then visited the other two campuses where they saw exhibits of work done by the numerous departments. Students and faculty members welcomed the guests and showed them about the buildings.

With ten straight wins behind them San Mateo players started this week at the head of the baseball southern conference. They defeated Modesto JC 26-1 and 12-6, scoring 21 runs in one inning of the first game. In a practice game the Mateans defeated San Francisco State College 4-3.

While the day college is busy with classes, sports and social events, the college Adult Center is also booming with nearly six thousand men and women attending some 134 courses. In the adult center 97 different subjects are offered, with 93 different teachers on the staff. Twenty-six different locations house the adult program which is offered by the San Mateo Junior College district and the San Mateo Union High School district.

Adult Center players at Millbrae present their "John Loves Mary" comedy May 5, 6, 7, 19, 20, and 21, and the Peninsula Little Theatre continues its comedy, "Just Married" this week end at the Baldwin campus auditorium.

Among the coming events at the junior college are the big Hawaiian dance this Friday night in the Baldwin gym, an aquacade at the college pool May 27, and the Bit and Spur riding show June 3. The Patrons Association is having a card party at Coyote Point this Thursday afternoon to benefit the athletic injury fund.

Dr. T. Z. Koo, noted Y worker from China, was guest speaker at the college recently.

Our Tribute To Mother

It's fine to set aside a day each year for honoring mother. She deserves it — and more. Her task is pretty rugged at best in spite of all the new inventions and devices aimed at making housework more simple.

But even if all her household chores were done by machine or by helpful members of the family her job still wouldn't be easy. There's much more to it than routine things. Most important is her service to her family as a counselor, confidant and comforter.

She must help solve the puzzling problems of her children, settle their quarrels, guide them in their activities, point out the right and wrong way—and this goes on not merely while they're tots or teen-agers but often long after they're grown. In addition to this she is often called upon to advise and counsel her husband on business matters and then, just to fill in her spare moments, she usually has a few problems of her own.

Yes, mother well deserves her day.

We merchants of Daly City wish to pay our tribute to the Mothers of our community on this special day. We will do our best to serve the "heart" of the family and to make her tasks easier during every day of this year and the years to come.

"EASY DOES IT"

"Easy does it" is a good advice in a lot of things, points out the public safety department of the National Automobile Club, but it is particularly good advice in the operation of an automobile. The skilled driver does all things easily. When he starts up from a stop, he accelerates smoothly. When he decelerates, he comes to a gradual stop, usually doing most of it by merely taking his foot from the accelerator. When he makes a turn he gives himself plenty of time. With the skilled driver it is always a matter of "easy does it."
